Hoffa's Troubles Mount; Testimony Delay Granted

Union Chief's Lawyer Cites Pile of Trouble

Congressional Group To Let Teamster Aide Attend Miami Parley

WASHINGTON (AP) The Senate Rackets Committee today granted James R. Hoff's plea to delay further testimony from him until after next week's Teamsters Union convention.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) told Hoffa's lawyer, George Fitzgerald, the committee had intended to call Hoffa here Saturday as a witness.

Fitzgerald protested against a flood of committee, court and AFL-CIO charges breaking around Hoffa "like confetti at a county fair. Everything is happening on the eve of the convention."

The convention starts Monday at Miami Beach, Fla. Hoffa is the leading candidate to be elected Teamsters president as successor to Dave Beck. Beck like Hoffa has been linked to mushrooming Teamsters Union scandals.

The Senate committee has accused Hoffa of misusing thousands of dollars of union funds and wrongful use of his powers.

AND AN AFL - CIO committee has charged Hoffa with associations with hoodlums and has indicated the teamsters will be ousted from the federation if Hoffa assumed the union leadership.

McClellan said his committee had also intended to summon Owen Bert Brennan and Frank Collins, union aides to Hoffa.

Fitzgerald asked for at least a 30-day postponement of any required appearance of Hoffa, Collins or Brennan. He said he would have to advise Brennan, president of Detroit Teamsters Local 337 and Hoffa's sidekick and business partner, to invoke the Fifth Amendment and refuse to answer questions if Brennan were called for questioning today.

Collins is secretary-treasurer of Detroit Teamsters Local No. 299, Hoffa's home local. Committee counsel Robert Kennedy described him as Hoffa's paymaster. He, like Brennan, was waiting to be called for committee testimony.

McClellan said the committee would "weigh this thing very, very carefully." He said the committee doesn't want to be unfair or impose on anyone.

Fitzgerald said Hoffa and Brennan are jointly indicted, with professional New York wire tapper Bernard Spindel, on wire tap conspiracy charges in New York. This is to go to trial Oct. 15.

Fitzgerald said Hoffa and Collins were indicted again Wednesday on charges of perjury in respect to testimony they gave to the grand jury invstigating the wire tap case. The Teamsters attorney cautioned against the committee trying to question all three before these charges are aired.

Fitzgerald said he was "generally apprehensive as a lawyer" that Brennan also may be indicted for perjury in connection with testimony he gave the New York grand jury on the wire tap case.

Labor Split Looms As Teamsters Get Order To Clean Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Possibilities of the bitterest schism in the ranks of organized labor in more than two decades shaped up today in the wake of a 30-day cleanup ultimatum issued to the giant Teamsters Union by the AFL-CIO.

The Executive Council of the AFL-CIO set the time limit for possible suspension of the nation's largest union at an extraordinary session Wednesday.

The council acted in the face of a warning that James R. Hoffa, a chief target of the AFL-CIO leadership, was sure of election as president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters at its convention next week.

The warning came from John F. English, secretary of the Teamsters, in his capacity as an AFL-CIO vice president and a member of the Executive Council.

English, who cast the lone vote against the cleanup mandate, urged the Executive Council not to make a hasty decision that he said might cut the heart out of the merged labor movement.

WITH THE 1,400,000 - member Teamsters Union put on notice to cleanse itself of corruption within 30 days or face possible stiff reprisal, the situation recalled that of 22 years ago when the founding unions of CIO quit the AFL.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council's order to the Teamsters was to eliminate abuses and to remove from elective or appointive office "those who are responsbile for these abuses."

Hoffa, powerful vice president of the Teamsters, is in Miami Beach waging his campaign for president as successor to the retiring Dave Beck.

Both top men of the Teamsters spurned invitations from the AFL-CIO leaders to answer corruption charges against them and some other officers of the union.

An ultimatum the same as that issued to the Teamsters was directed at the 138,000-member Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union by the Executive Council Wednesday.

The Teamsters and Bakery Workers were ordered to report to the Executive Council at a special meeting here Oct. 24 on what steps have been taken to wipe out malpractices and bar corrupt influences.

A similar ultimatum was issued Tuesday to the 40,000 - member United Textile Workers of America. This union is distinct from the larger Textile Workers Union of America.

Long Phone Strike Ahead, Union Warns

Officers of Ohio Locals Lash Out At Parent Body

CLEVELAND (AP) — Officers of Communications Workers union locals representing 18,500 striking Ohio Bell Telephone Co. employes have been told to prepare for a long, hard strike. The walkout is now in its second week.

Part of the reason for this pessimistic view is the fault of the international union which Wednesday drew the condemnation from Ohio's local union officers.

Officers from 45 Ohio cities condemned their parent union "for permitting the Western Electric installers to settle their strike for approximately the same contract that could have been received without a strike."

The statement, issued as the officers met to hear a report on contract negotiations, said that because of the international union's action "of tying the Ohio and Western Electric negotiations together, the rug had been pulled from under the union bargaining committee in present negotiations with the Ohio Bell Telephone Co."

THE CWA CALLED Western Electric installers and Ohio Bell operators and plant craftsmen out on strike 10 days ago. Negotiators announced agreement with Western Electric last week, but the Ohio Bell negotiations still are deadlocked. The Western Electric settlement has not been approved by the entire union membership.

The 165-member Akron-Canton-Youngstown unit of the Western Electric installers, CWA local 5790, voted 51-7 to reject the offer, union officials said today in Akron. Dissatisfaction with the wage settlement and transfer allowances for temporary shifts to other communities prompted the rejection, a union spokesman said.

Martin J. Hughes, Ohio director for the CWA, told the local officers to be prepared for a long strike against Ohio Bell. He said there was little hope in the near future for any substantial improvement in the company's offer.

Telephone Service Being Maintained Here

Telephone service in the Washington C. H. area is being maintained on a virtually normal basis despite the strike of the CWA strike against the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Paul Dougherty, commercial manager here said Thursday noon that about 80 percent of the non-management employes here are still reporting regularly for work.

Winter in Antarctic Ends; It's 88 Below

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—A group of U. S. scientists and servicemen at the South Pole Monday raised the Stars and Stripes to commemorate the end of a sunless six-month winter.

A bulletin today from Rear Adm. George J. Dufek's headquarters in Christchurch said "formalities were necessarily short" since the temperature was 88 below zero.

Girard Surprises His Own Attorneys with Testimony

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—William S. Girard surprised his own counsel today by denying under oath that he shouted "Get out" to scare away Japanese shell collectors on a U. S. firing range last Jan. 30.

All prosecution witnesses have testified Girard, or a soldier resembling him, shouted "Get out" or "Get out of here" that day when Mrs. Naka Sakai was killed.

The Ottawa, Ill., soldier is accused of luring her closer, then firing a fatal shot from his rifle grenade launcher.

Girard's defense lawyer had intended to use the warning shouts to bolster his contention that Girard was shooing away, not enticing, shell collectors.

Judge Yuzo Kawachi asked Girard whether he said "Get out" or "Get out of her." Girard replied: "No, sir."

"Girard told the truth as he knows it," Maj. Stanley Levin, Girard's army legal adviser, said later.

Itsuro Hayashi, Girard's Japanese lawyer, said irritably: "I'm not ordering Girard how to testify. However, I had believed those witnesses who heard 'Get out of here.' "

Girard also said he had not heard his only companion, Specialist 3c Victor Nickel, Inkster, Mich., shout such a warning.

Girard returned to the stand in his manslaughter trial after a 29-year-old illiterate farmer told of seeing an American soldier scatter empty cartridges on the ground then fire twice.

Kuji Sakai, the farmer, did not identify Girard by name, but said the shots were fired by the "smaller, shorter one . . . the light complexioned one."

Girard appears somewhat shorter and is lighter than Nickel.

Booby-Trap Hurts Coeds

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A Ball State Teachers College senior who couldn't get a date with a coed he admired admitted Wednesday night he made a booby-trapped package that injured her and two other college girls.

State Police Lt. Robert Dillon said David Wayne Carter, 20, New Castle, Ind., admitted rigging the shotgun-breech device and sending it to Ruth Ann Petry, 18.

The package exploded Friday in a building on the college campus at Muncie, Ind., as Miss Petry and two other coeds opened it. Miss Petry and Linda Helverson, 18, were injured only slightly, but Mrs. Mel Reynolds, 20, lost the tips of two fingers and was wounded in the arms and neck.

All three are from Anderson.

Carter was questioned at Muncie because of his attempts to date Miss Petry. He confessed here after being brought to state police headquarters for a lie detector test.

Carter told police he cut out the breech section of a shotgun and inserted it against a block of wood so that the gun would fire when the block was moved in opening a box.

He said he left the device in a school locker picked at random. Addressed to Miss Petry, it was found and delivered to her.

Disputed Property Heads for Auction Block Again

Fairground Reappraised at $83,514

Fayette County's privately owned Fairground soon will go on the auction block again—this time with an $83,514 appraisal tag instead of $108,250.

A report of a new appraisal team has been turned over to Sheriff Orland Hays.

A dispute over the property dates directly back to 1954 when Earl Leroy Scott and Esther Scott Crone filed a suit in Common Pleas Court against Herbert Wilson.

The suit was to quiet title, and when Fayette County Common Pleas Judge John P. Case stepped down from the case, Clinton County Common Pleas Judge Charles R. Kirk was assigned to it by Chief Justice Carl V. Weygrandt of the Ohio Supreme Court.

In deciding the 1954 title suit, Judge Kirk found in favor of the plaintiffs. He ruled that Wilson had no interest in the property and that Scott and Miss Crone had good title to the property at the time of the decision.

WILSON HAD ANSWERED the suit filed against him, claiming that he had bought an undivided one-third interest in the property from Clarence Wohlheter in 1933. Wohlheter had inherited the interest from his wife, Flossie Scott Wohlheter, who had come into possession of the property.

Wilson also filed a cross-petition asking for partition of the land in dispute.

Judge Kirk's decision was reversed the following year by the Second District Court of Appeals and partition was ordered by a mandate of the Appellate Court on Feb. 20, 1957.

That same day, Judge Kirk appointed Arch O. Riber, Paul Pennington and Tom Mark, to appraise the property. However, he specifically instructed the three to disregard the existence of a lease contract with the Fayette County commissioners. The appraisers placed their valuation at $108,250 and the three parcels of land were ordered sold from the courthouse steps. The sale was scheduled April 29—only one thing was wrong, there weren't any bids.

By law the lowest acceptable bid had to be at least two-thirds of the appraised value, or $72,166.

A SECOND GROUP of appraisers was appointed Sept. 12. They were instructed to consider in their appraisal the lease with the county commissioners. This appraisal team consisted of Harold Sheridan, Robert Olinger and Floyd Mitchell.

The three plots of land under contention (they total 46.4 acres) have been used as the Fayette County Fairground since 1886. Currently, the county commissioners have a lease contract which was signed in 1950 and good for 20 years calling for an annual rental of $2,500 per year. The contract lease is effective until 1970 and contains no renewal clause.

Each of the three parcels involved in the litigation was appraised separately. The main Fairground area (involving 39.77 acres) was appraised at $66,450. A 5.67 acre strip along the CCC highway was valued at $14,736, and a .952

LITTLE ROCK IS CALM

GUARDING AGAINST 'ANARCHY'—Armed with rifles and fixed bayonets, grim regular Army troops ordered out by President Eisenhower "to prevent mob rule and anarchy" in Little Rock, Ark., stand guard at Central High School. They are 101st Airborne Division paratroopers.

Negroes Walk Undisturbed To Classrooms

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — U.S. Army troops formed a protective skirmish line for nine Negro students who leisurely walked into Central High School today, laughing and relaxed with no crowd but newsmen watching them.

As Wednesday an Army station wagon drove the six Negro girls and three boys to the front entrance of the school and two soldiers walking behind escorted them to the door.

About six girls left school before the Negroes appeared but three of them returned to school after the Negroes entered.

The scene was completely quiet. There was no crowd, no shouts and no trouble.

Paratroopers picked up a white man in the uniform of an Air Force second lieutenant today and found a rifle in his car and a revolver on his person.

A paratroop officer said the man was apprehended near the school on a tip from Little Rock police and called him "an impersonator." The officer said the man, about 25, had no Air Force credentials.

About 100 to 150 students sitting around the main entrance to the school watched the Negroes approach. One reporter said he heard "a half-hearted boo."

One white girl who stayed away from school Wednesday said her mother made her return, against her will, to classes today.

"Some of us are going to get far behind if we stay away much longer," she said.

AS STUDENTS streamed in, a school spokesman said "it looks like this will be our most normal day this week."

Newsmen ran toward the middle of the block to meet the Negro students providing the only flurry at the school. The soldiers with fixed bayonets remained calmly at parade rest — a relaxed position in formation.

As the second day of integration at the school began under the eyes of federal troops, Arkansas waited to see what Gov. Orval Faubus might do about the use of what he termed "naked force."

The embattled governor, who ordered Arkansas National Guard was taken into federal service by President Eisenhower Tuesday, will make a nationwide speech on ABC Radio-TV tonight at 9 EST.

White Students' Emotions Mixed

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—After the first full day in high school with white classmates, what does a Negro girl think about them?

"They are anxious to find out what we are like. They are torn between their parents and their own minds. They just don't know what to do."

That's the opinion of Minniejean Brown, one of the nine Negro students who attended classes at Little Rock Central High Wednesday while U. S. Army paratroop units stood guard.

All nine said that they heard no jeers or insulting remarks.

"Today was a very exciting day," said 15-year-old Minniejean.

"I had a good time," said Melba Pattillo, 15 - year - old 11th-grader. "The only incidents were very, very minor."

She said, "When I walked into one class a boy got up and made a speech, urging the other students to walk out. He told the others that they were 'chicken' if they didn't walk out. Then the teacher told him to leave and he left. Everybody else stayed."

The exuberance of the two Negro girls, both plump and large for their age, was in sharp contrast to the reticence of the other Negroes, but all the stories were similar.

Did they sit with white students in the cafeteria?

Melba said that she did and Minniejean said "I had invitations from seven white girls."

One teacher, asking not to be identified, said:

"The Negroes seem to be getting along very well with all the other students. There is no trouble."

Arab Leaders Meet in Syria

Saud Plays Key Role As Iraqi Chief Visits

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Premier Ali Jawdat of Iraq arrived in Damascus today in a dramatic demonstration of all-out efforts by King Saud of Saudi Arabia to patch up Arab world differences.

It is the first visit of any Iraqi premier to Syria since the establishment of the Baghdad Pact, which tended to isolate the Iraqi regime from other Middle East Arab nations.

Iraq, like neighboring Jordan ruled by the Hashemite family has long been feuding with the current Syrian regime.

Premier Jawdat entered Syria from Lebanon by automobile after a trip to Beirut from Istanbul and received an apparently cordial official welcome.

The Saudi Arabian king, who flew in Wednesday, apparently strongly urged Syria to invite Iraq to participate in the talks, which King Saud seems to hope will prevent the Mideast situation from becoming a dangerous crisis.

The wealthy monarch, a friend of the United States, scheduled meetings today with President Shukri Kuwatly and other Syrian leaders.

SYRIA HAS attached great importance to the three-day visit of the king. This was shown by an impressive welcome at Damascus Airport.

Ranking government and military officials headed the cheering airport crowds. Four MIG jet fighters bought from Russia by the Syrian air force swept overhead. The king was handed a big bouquet.

Also on hand to greet Saud was Robert Strong, charge d'affaires at the U.S. Embassy.

It was the first time an American diplomat turned out for a state occasion since U.S - Syrian relations dropped to a new low with Syrian charges of a plot by the United States against the Kuwatly government.

Saud is on friendly terms with all members of the Arab bloc and also has cooperated with U. S. policy in the Middle East.

New Trial Eyed In Slaying Case

COLUMBUS (AP) — Attorneys for Elmer Tilton, 66, Columbus, convicted of second degree murder in the death of a Columbus tavern owner, say they plan to ask for a new trial.

Tilton was convicted in Franklin County Criminal Court Wednesday of fatally shooting John T. Paul April 14. At the time he was arrested, Tilton said he shot Paul because the tavern operator cursed him and told him to get off the sidewalk.

Tilton pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

Judge Robert E. Leach said he would withhold sentencing pending the motion for a new trial.

Ike, Dixie Chiefs To Talk Tuesday

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower has arranged a conference for next Tuesday with a committee of Southern governors seeking withdrawal of federal troops enforcing school integration at Little Rock, Ark.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, announced the President will fly back to Washington for the Tuesday meeting with five Southern governors. They requested a conference in a message Wednesday.

Eisenhower today sent this telegram to Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida:

"I will be pleased to meet at the White House in Washington with the committee of the Southern Governors Conference on Tuesday, Oct. 1 at 2:30 p. m. (EDT) to discuss problems of school integration."

Collins is chairman of the conference.

The governors had asked Eisenhower for an opportunity to discuss specifically the situation at Little Rock where federal troops have been ordered by the President to enforce a fedral court school intgration edict.

In his telegram, the President spoke more broadly of school integration problems generally.

ASKED WHETHER that means Eisenhower wants to broaden the scope of the Tuesday session beyond the Little Rock situation, Hagerty replied without elaboration:

"I would say 'yes.' "

The President's vacation headquarters said late Wednesday he readily agreed when the governors requested a meeting. They did so in an 11-1 vote at the Southern Governors Conference at Sea Island, Ga.

But while Eisenhower is ready to confer and hopeful that the session will contribute to solution of integration troubles, there is no indication whatever that he will agree to removal of troops from Little Rock until he is convinced the danger of mob violence has subsided.

The President ordered the troops into Little Rock's Central High School area Tuesday after deciding that his cease-and-desist edict to rioters against integration had not been obeyed.

Nine Negro pupils were escorted to and from classes Wednesday by bayonet-carrying soldiers of the 101st Airborne Division. At the Newport White House, press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower "thought it was good" that the children went to classes.

The Southern Governors' Conference adopted a resolution saying: "The situation in Little Rock is a matter of grave concern. It is imperative that a constructive solution be found.

"A committee of this conference appointed by its chairman, should request a conference or conferences with the President and the governor of Arkansas, separately or jointly, seeking the withdrawal of federal troops from Arkansas at the earliest possible moment."

Legislators Discuss Sewer Rates, Safety Matters

Council Accepts Plat For New Development

City Council approved the plat of a new 69-lot subdivision, agreed to review that section of a new sewer rate ordinance which affects automatic garbage disposal units and endorsed a Junior Chamber of Commerce school-safety program at its regular meeting Wednesday night.

Council authorized City Manager James F. Parkinson to endorse the plat of the Brownell 1957 subdivision—a 20-acre tract lying east of Elm St., south of Washington Ave., west of the Ely St. subdivision and north of the Pennsylvania Railroad right—of-way. St. Colman's Cemetery lies at the southwest corner of the tract.

The plat already had received the approval of the city zoning board. The property is onwed by Bud and Mary Brownell.

The new subdivision, a part of the former Daniel McLean subdivision which was platted but never developed, will have 26-foot, paved streets with curbs and approved drainage. Minimum width of lots will be 60 feet and minimum depth will be 150 feet.

THE BROWNELL subdivision will be reached from Washington Ave., by way of extensions of McLean and Church Sts. A new street, Clemson Plaza, will provide egress into Elm St.

During discussion of the plat several councilmen cited the need for careful planning in connection with new subdivisions as well as the advisability of a uniform building code.

Council indicated its intention of giving these two matters further study but asked that in the meantime the city manager prepare a sample schedule of minimum requirements for new subdivisions.

COUNCILMEN agreed to cooperate with the Jaycee organization's campaign to reduce traffic hazards in the vicinity of the Washington High School building where older students have been setting a poor example for elementary pupils by running across busy streets

Telephone

Only 11 of the total employes have gone out here, he said; nine of them are operators, one is a man in the plant department and the other is a woman in the commercial department.

Inasmuch as local calls are handled by automatic dial equipment, Dougherty said he made a check of the long distance calls and found that 50 more had been put through Wednesday (yesterday) than on the last Wednesday (Sept. 11) before the strike. He added that he had received no reports of delays in long distance service, which would be most directly affected by the walkout.

Supervisory and management personnel, Dougherty explained, are filling gaps in most exchanges.

State Mental Health Chief Quits Post Under Pressure

COLUMBUS (AP)—Dr. C. Earl Albrecht, acting director of the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction for the last year, resigned under pressure today.

The resignation was announced by the department's new director whom Gov C. William O'Neill appointed about six weeks ago.

Dr. Robert A. Haines, the department's new director, immediately appointed Robert K. Dean to the assistant director's post.

Dean, who is not a physician, has been administrative assistant superintendent of Longview State Hospital, Cincinnati, for the last 15 months. His salary in his new post has not been determined.

In announcing Dr. Albrecht's resignation, Dr. Haines said:

"I deeply appreciate the contribution Dr. Albrecht has made to Ohio's mental hygiene and correction programs as acting director during the past year, and I wish him well in whatever endeavor he may undertake."

DR. HAINES' prepared statement offered no explanation for Dr. Albrecht's resignation.

Dr. Albrecht said he was asked to resign last Monday, the day Dr. Haines took over the directorship. He added that neither then nor later did Dr Haines say why he wanted the resignation.

However, Dr. Albrecht reported for work in the department today.

"I am hopeful of working in the department in the Columbus area as a physician specialist, which is my state civil service status," Dr. Albrecht told newsmen.

Dr. Albrecht said he had asked that his resignation be effective Nov. 1 and was told "the date might have to be moved up some."

"I have endeavored to determine why such drastic action should be taken and I could find no reason," Dr. Albrecht said.

"I had indicated to Dr. Haines in writing and to the governor and to others that my desire was to remain with the department and work with Dr. Haines and anyone Dr. Haines would like to bring in.

"However, this was not acceptable, and I was requested to resign immediately."

Before going to Longview, Dean was administrative assistant at Springfield City Hospital. He was with the Veterans Administration for eight years in the hospital personnel and management field.

The "Happy - Go - Lucky" and "Seam 'n' Seamettes" clubbers were guests of the Grange. Associate County Agent Phil Grover presented the members and gave achievement awards to top performers in the groups.

The home economics candy contest will be held at the next meeting of Pomona, Mrs. Roscoe Whiteside, juvenile deputy matron, announced at the meeting.

Plans for the county - wide installation of officers, to be held Oct. 14 at the Marshall Grange Hall in Jeffersonville, were discussed by County Deputy Roscoe Whiteside.

The Pickaway County team will install officers of the Pomona and five subordinate Granges in the county, Whiteside observed, noting that this team won the state - wide drill and degree teams contest this year.

Roger Hayes, the overseer, presided.

Some Progress Reported In Needed Move

There is currently reported to be an encouraging start toward the much advocated movement for the federal government and state governments to get together on efforts toward "bringing more government activities back home."

Recently the numerous people who have insisted that this is one way to cut high federal government taxes, are heartened by the initial plans of the Joint Federal-State Action Committee which is seeking ways to stem the trend over many past years toward centralization of power in Washington D. C.

Most all of us here in Fayette County who have watched this growing power in Washington D. C. have felt for a long time that something should be done about it. It is probably that this same line of thinking is true among observing citizens in every community in the country.

In spite of this, nearly every locality gives way to the idea of obtaining some cash grant, whenever possible, from the federal government, on most every new public project which comes up. The favorite reason assigned for such efforts to get government money is "if we don't get it some other community will."

Recently the committee of state governors and federal officials, formed at the suggestion of President Eisenhower, in a meeting at Hershey, Pa., reached tentative agreement on a plan under which the states would assume about, $500,000,000 in federal expenditures. This, at least, is a good start if carried out.

Under this plan, the states would take over complete responsibility for the school lunch programs, vocational education, natural disaster relief, water pollution, small "stimulative" grants and 50 per cent of the supplemental old-age assistance.

In return, it was recommended that the federal government relinquish to the states the taxes it now collects on local telephone service, amusement tickets, cabarets, club dues and initiation fees, coin operated gaming and amusement devices, safe deposit box rentals, bowling alley and pool tables.

It has become evident to nearly everybody that some action is needed to prevent the states from becoming almost powerless satellites of the national government.

More Federal aid means higher Federal taxes, less revenue left for state and local governments— and even more dependence on Federal aid.

It has been pointed out by many discerning people that "grants from Washington D. C. to our states have increased more than two and half times in recent years. But our communities are not 'getting something for nothing'— the cost in taxes is far higher than if the projects were handled at home, by local authorities responsive to local needs.

"These grants-in-aid, this pan-handling approach to filling state and community needs, costs America far more in freedom than it does in funds. Big-government spending means big - government controls, as many a once - free people have learned to its sorrow."

Husband's Brains Weigh Most

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't read his mail:

That the average American husband has five ounces more brains than his wife. And if he'll just let her use them, he'll do all right for himself.

That a baby kangaroo is only an inch long at birth.

That comedian George De Witt overheard a child tell a friend, "I don't do as mummy tells me; but daddy does!"

That an ant is more intelligent than a whale. The whale, big as he is, would never get harpooned if he didn't spout off in public.

That there's a town in Iowa named What Cheer.

That the highest wind velocity clocked by the U. S. Weather Bureau in a hurricane was 186 miles an hour.

That it was H. G. Wells who warned, "The future of humanity depends on the outcome of the race between education and catastrophe."

That a newly seeded lawn in Woodmere, Long Island, had this sign: "Don't ruin these gay blades."

That you spend one year of your life on the phone.

That Japan is the best country in the world for a mouse, because the Japanese believe that as long as mice live in a building it is safe from fire and flood.

That the total value of all homes in the United States is estimated at $250 billion, or 2½ times the assets of the nation's largest corporations.

That a flea is so strong that, if it were as large as a man, it could drag two elephants around a football field.

That newscaster John Wingate suggests this as the official subway motto: "The public be jammed."

That, by papal decree, the Archangel St. Michael is the patron saint of policemen and law enforcement officers.

That women are named as beneficiaries in 75 per cent of all life insurance policies in America.

That it was Robert Louis Stevenson who said, "You cannot run away from a weakness. You must some time fight it out or perish; and if that be so, why not now, and where you stand?"

FBI Chief Warns the Nation

By George Sokolsky

J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI is warning the country that we are becoming dangerously complacent about Communist activities in the United States.

Of course, the number of party members have been reduced to a bare minimum, not only by the resignation of opportunists and time-servers, but also by a shift of confirmed and believing Marxists to related movements and by the hard core of obedient agents of the Kremlin who have gone underground. Some of these are now operating out of Mexico.

The FBI is more familiar with the details of this situation than any private citizen can be, for it is obvious from court trials and congressional committee hearings that the FBI has infiltrated this movement and is able to have detailed reports on its activities from the inside.

On the other hand, it has become a phase of party propaganda, as anyone who reads the "Daily Worker" can see, to minimize the importance of the party in the United States, to give figures showing how the party has lost members, is poverty-stricken and is about to collapse.

To this, J. Edgar Hoover replied at the American Legion convention: ". . .the FBI investigations have shown that there is a hard core of conspiratorial reds unaffected by party differences and controlled by the heavy hand of Moscow. As long as this undercover 'apparatus' exists, the Communist threat cannot be brushed aside as trivial or fanciful. It is a continuing, aggressive force constantly at work to suborn and subvert the American people. . ."

But much more significant are his references to those sentimental and maudlin organizations which refuse to recognize the danger of Communist activity which in the 1930s was devoted largely to propaganda, in the 1940s to infiltration, but today is an espionage and sabotage apparatus of fearful dimensions.

Hoover said this:

". . .The influence of the subversive conspiracy has been almost unbelievable—reaching deep into practically every talk of life. To gauge the effectiveness of this campaign, we need only to note the widespread and vociferous clamor raised whenever our government attempts to deal firmly in self-defense against the subversive threat.

"Certain organizations obviously dedicate their efforts to thwart the very concept of security. They vehemently oppose methods to gain this security and it is obvious that their aim is to destroy it. They protest that they are fighting for freedom, but in reality, they seek license. They hypocritically bar Communists from their membership, but they seem to hate all persons who abhor Communists and communism. They claim to be anti-Communist but they launch attacks against congressional legislation designed to curb communism. They distort and misrepresent and ridicule the government's security program. They lobby and exert pressure on the leaders of government both in the legislative and executive branches."

One might assume that J. Edgar Hoover is referring to the ADA or to the Fund for the Republic, although in his speech, he did not itemize the organizations which he denounces so vehemently. Nvertheless, he does call attention to the fact that "some such organizations are supported by tax - exempt funds" which points a very sharp finger in a specific direction.

It is significant that the director of the FBI chose the American Legion convention for this speech, because in recent years the American Legion has been one of the most aggressive organizations in its fight on communism and has been violently attacked by the Fund for the Republic particularly in relation to the Legion's efforts to drive communism out of Hollywood. J. Edgar Hoover, in effect, told the Legion that the fight is by no means over and that it should go on with its work. He said:

". . .The recent campaign to throw open the files of the FBI is a case in point. The bland refusal to recognize the right of the public welfare and the proper use of common sense result too often in a prostitution of the law in favor of evil. . . ."

In a sense this speech also reads a lesson to those modern Republicans who have adopted the thesis that while the United States is fighting communism abroad and spending billions of dollars in preparation for a war with Soviet Russia, nothing should be done about Communist activity within the United States. It was upon this thesis that Joe McCarthy and the White House came to blows, ending only with his death.

Water service is cut off promptly on the 15th of each month to residents who have not paid. But the slow-paying customers aren't forced to do without water— they are welcome to haul water from a hydrant in the city park.

Waterless Cleaners Boon to Cleaners

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Personal cleanliness doesn't have to be forgotten by telephone linemen, construction men and others who must work outside away from sanitary facilities.

No longer do these field workers have to grab sandwiches from their lunch boxes with grimy dirty or oil-stained hands. Waterless hand cleaners now permit a good cleanup job right at the work site.

These waterless cleaners remove dirt and oil as well as soap and water. In some cases they do a job that's even more effective.

They are available in plastic squeeze tubes and are rubbed into the hands until they become liquefied. They are then immediately wiped off with a cloth, towel or absorbent paper.

It's just about the same as washing your hands at home.

While these cleaners are perfectly all right for most persons, some few, of course, will show allergic reactions to the compounds.

In most cases, though, the waterless cleaners actually will help prevent skin allergies from poison ivy, poison oak and irritating soils and oils.

Polyhydric phenols are the active ingredients in these plant poisons. Using mild oxidizing agents, such as are found in the waterless cleaners, helps render such ingredients ineffective.

Immediate action, of course, is quite necessary to wash away all of the poisonous substances.

This is possible only if you have something with which you can clean do, unless you have something like waterless cleaners along with you.

More and more utilities, and other firms which send men out into the fields, are adding waterless cleaner as part of the truck crew's equipment.

From the standpoint of health and safety, it seems like a pretty good idea to me.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: George and I have been married five years, and have lived far beyond our means in this time—buying things and incurring obligations we can't afford.

We've relied chiefly on my salary of $4,600 a year (in a secretarial administrative job) to maintain our shaky financing—for George hasn't made more than $300 a month since we married. Since leaving the Army a year ago, he is making even less, and now has gone back to school to get a college degree.

His earning potential will be less than $5,000 a year for maybe three years.

Continually I reproach myself for living above my husband's income, and for being unable to accommodate myself to life on his scale of earning. Yet I feel it is literally impossible to live on $300 a month in this area (as George expects me to).

Counting on my earnings, we've bought a late model costly car, household appliances and some furniture, and have made other debts. With George's money we are able to pay only for rent, food and incidentals. When I reproach him for our many bills and my fears that they wouldn't be paid, except for my salary, he says—"Well, you made the bills." Yet he doesn't object to enjoying the things thus acquired.

He talks of buying a house one day soon—which I say we can't even consider for about 10 years, on his present prospects. I feel with the money I've made since we married, we should have a backlog of savings, but we have no savings and are constantly in debt, more and more. We seem to get nowhere.

George hasn't much ambition; I have to push him into things. Am I foolish in doing all this? Have I used the wrong approach?

F. C.

DEAR F.C.: Your whining recital suggests to me that your husband George is hardly more than a cat's-paw in your scheme of things; and a great disappointment in your opinion.

Also your story indicates that you are your own worst enemy financially — anxiously involved in compulsive over-spending, meanwhile blaming George for the demoralizing strain you put on the budget.

Obviously you are sorely confused—about a great deal more than money management, I take it. Your troublesome indulgence of tastes beyond your means probably signifies hunger for a life that satisfies; that is based on real values—the nature of which you can't specify on the basis of past experience.

As regards your problem, you have flashes of awareness and storms of emotion. At times you see straight and recognize your mistakes—for example: in this letter you reproach yourself (somewhat) for swanking on credit. But in the main (and between the lines) you are fired by emotional conviction of being financially wronged by George, because he falls far short of your up-in-the-clouds living standards.

This is the general gist of your complaint: it is substantially how you feel (unconsciously) about your self-made predicament of growing indebtedness.

Until you are better integrated in dealing with yourself, and have facts sorted out from feelings, and reason in control of behavior, it is idle to speculate on whether to buy a house; or what tactics to use in trying to make a go-getter of George.

George is the person he is—passive, a leaner-type. And your efforts to prod him to success are probably futile. It seems you are two of a kind, in the sense that each hoped for advantage at the other's expense, in the married state.

For advice: stop buying, except for cash. And buy only bare necessities until you are out of debt.

M. H.

USS Constellation Wins Loud Music Battle in Port

BALTIMORE (AP)—The 610-year-old USS Constellation, the nation's oldest fighting ship still afloat, won a skirmish with a Liberian freighter in Baltimore Harbor Wednesday night.

Hostilities began a week ago when "Greek and Chinese music" roared from the freighter's loud-speaker system to entertain its crew.

Donald Stewart, Constellation caretaker, couldn't sleep Wednesday night he responded to the music with 16-gun broadsides — on record, of course. Stewart kept his loud-speaker going for three hours, ending with a selection by the Highland Bagpipers.

The Liberian ship had struck its loud-speaker.

Preparations Now Under Way For Christmas Seal Sale Here

Preliminary work for the annual Christmas Seal sale in Fayette County today is well advanced, although the seals will not be put in the mail for around 6,500 prospective supporters of the fight against tuberculosis for nearly six weeks, Mrs. George Finley, new executive secretary of the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Assn., said today.

The file of all the names and addresses has been gone over by members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha chapter the Alpha Theta sorority and put in shape for the mailing.

Addresses have been checked and the list brought up to date. Cards of some who have been regular contributors before moving away have been taken out and names of some newcomers to the county have been added.

The task was completed Wednesday after nearly two weeks of work by the sorority members, who came to the office of the Tuberculosis and Health Assn. here in small groups of from two to half a dozen during the afternoons.

Members of the sorority, who give their time to the Christmas Seal sale as a part of their organization's overall welfare program, are Mrs. Howard Burnett Jr., president, Mrs. Robert Goodson, Mrs. Dudley Moon, Mrs. Robert Caldwell, Mrs. Lester Stephenson, Mrs. Charles Mallow, Mrs. Richard Kelley, Mrs. Mac Dews Jr., Mrs. Dwight Martin, Mrs. Gail Mershon, Mrs. Sam Athey, Mrs. Sam Wilson, Mrs. Frank Junk, Mrs. William Hunt, Mrs. Roger Rapp, Mrs. Charles Gibeaut and Mrs. David Moore.

MEMBERS of Beta Iota, sister chapter of Alpha Theta sorority, will lend a hand later by putting the seals and letters in the envelopes for mailing.

Typing classes in high school are to address the envelopes and address labels for the envelopes that will be sent for returning a contribution to the Tuberculosis and Health Assn. which carries on the seal sale and the year-round campaign for better health supported by the Christmas Seals.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Finley, who took over as executive-secretary of the association here just a week ago, has been going through the stack of mail and circulars, many of them containing information vital to the health program, which has accumulated during the past six weeks.

Mrs. Donald Stephens, who had been the executive-secretary for several years, resigned in July to join the public relations staff of the TB and Health Assn. in Dayton. She left Aug. 1 and Robert Tice, association president, had been taking care of only the most urgent matters until Mrs. Finley took over a week ago.

Mrs. Finley's first public appearance in her new position is scheduled for Monday, when she will show a motion picture on tuberculosis and health to the home economic classes at Washington C. H. High School. The film will come from the state headquarters of the association in Columbus.

Mrs. Finley said the work of bringing the files up to date had been done almost entirely by the sorority members and added, "I've been busy all day every day going over the mail and reading, reading, reading to learn more about this job and the association's program."

Chicago is the world's largest center of rail and air traffic.

Charity Bingo Faces Test in Middletown

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A major court test to determine whether bingo, when played for charitable purposes, is gambling, was in the making here Wednesday.

Police, led by Chief Joseph Blackmore, raided a bingo game Tuesday night at the Knights of Columbus hall and arrested two men on charges of gambling.

Municipal Court Judge J. T. Lamb Wednesday continued a hearing for them until Oct. 9. Meanwhile, Maxwell Finkleman, attorney for the men, said he would ask for a declaratory judgement to define the state's gambling laws as not applying to bingo when it is played for charitable purposes.

He said the case would be carried to the state Supreme Court if necessary.

Finkleman said the game Tuesday night was sponsored by the K. of C. for charitable purposes and there was to be no profit for the lodge.

All bingo has been banned here by City Manager Charles Thompson since June.

Attorneys said the Montgomery County Common Pleas Court ruled recently that bingo for charity said there have been other contrary decisions.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

For years I have been told that a meteorite was being used for a grave marker in Fairview Cemetery on Route 70, a mile northwest of Jeffersonville, long the burial ground for residents of the community.

A few days ago while passing the cemetery, I drove in and contacted J. O. Gahm, caretaker of that cemetery and seven others in Jefferson Township. He pointed out the stone at once.

I found the stone, which is about 12 inches in diameter and is partly buried in the ground, to be a glacial boulder of granite-like formation, with much quartz imbedded in the main matrix of the dark pink stone.

I have seen many similar glacial stones brought here from the mountains on the northeastern seaboard. They are of a type that soon weathers, due to their coarse make-up.

Had the stone been a meteorite it would have been torn to pieces as it rushd through the sky at terrific speed, or it would have been melted and disintegrated by the heat generated in its mad dash from outer space to the earth's surface.

I have inspected several stones which were said to be meteorites and have always found them to the glacial stones or concretions.

There are only a few glacial stones used as grave markers in Fayette County, one of the largest being on the Fisher lot in Sugar Grove Cemetery, Route 70, south.

DANIEL BOONE HERE

Daniel Boone, great pioneer and Indian fighter, hunted in Fayette County as well as other parts of Ohio, and was once held by the Shawnee Indians who captured him in Kentucky and removed him to their large village on the banks of North Fork of Paint Creek near Frankfort.

I recently obtained this story from Lewis M. Day, 87, who has practised law in Chillicothe for 63 years. He has a keen memory and history is one of his main hobbies.

Incidentally, Day is a fifth cousin of Daniel Boone and fourth cousin of Simon Kenton.

He related that Boone was captured in 1772 and was forced to do all kinds of work for the Indians, including making maple syrup, cutting sap troughs, etc., in what is now Porter's Hollow, a few miles south of Frankfort, which was then called Old Town.

Boone watched his chance and one night escaped his Indian guards.

Following North Fork of Paint Creek to Waugh's Run, which enters the stream from the east, he followed that stream until near daylight, then took refuge in a giant hollow sycamore tree. Boone is quoted as saying he never saw as much wild game anywhere as in the area about the sycamore tree which grew in Northwestern Ross County.

The next night he headed east to Deer Creek, followed it to the Scioto River, stole an Indian canoe and, still traveling at night, made his way down the Scioto to the Ohio River and on to Maysville, Ky.

Later he and Simon Kenton led a party of settlers against the Shawnees, defeated them, drove them back to their village near Frankfort and burned the village.

Boone thus had his revenge on his cruel Shawnee captors.

APPRECIATION EXPRESSION

"It's just my way of saying thank you to folks who have sent me business" said George Blackmore, owner of the Herefordshire Motel and operation of the Del Rancho Motel on Route 22, west, who Monday was host fo 104 persons who enjoyed a luncheon served on the lawn at the Herefordshire.

It was the second time that George has acknowledged the good will of friends with a luncheon and he said he plans to continue the annual observance indefinitely.

Liberal helpings of real Hereford beef sandwiches, baked beans, creamed slaw and creamed potatoes, and coffee were served under the supervision of Mrs. Blackmore.

All of the guests praised the good food and inspected the 10 - unit motel.

The guests also saw where a six-unit addition has been started at the west end of the motel, and were told that a little later another unit of similar size will be built on the east end.

GREEN PASTURES

Throughout the county pastures have taken on new life and show a luxurious greenness which is somewhat unusual late in September.

This means that livestock will be pastured late, with resultant saying in other feed.

LITTLE CORN CUT

In recent drives through several townships, I have seen only two fields in which the corn had been cut and placed in the shock. The total number of shocks in both small fields was less than 100.

Since the coming of the mechanical corn pickers, little corn is cut and shocked. Sometime prior to that nearly all of the corn was shocked, with only a comparatively small acreage left on the stalk.

However, as time passed for some 25 years prior to the corn pickers, more and more corn was left on the stalk, and after the corn was husked, cattle and hogs were turned into the fields to eat the fodder and any corn that had been missed.

Now the fodder and stalks are cut to pieces and left on the fields, where it proves a wonderful fertilizer and soil conditioner negligible compared to the old method of saving the fodder.

Also the cost of corn cutting, which finally reached 20 cents a shock or more, as well as the cost huskings, was saved.

Again with the diminishing number of horses, which reached as many as 12,048 in 1910 and dwindled to 4,100 in 1943, there has been far less demand for corn fodder as feed, and its loss for feed is not missed.

An entire field of corn in the shock is now a rarity, and never fails to attract attention.

Tractor Somersaults, Killing Farmer, 67

Columbiana County Coroner Ernest Sturgis said Pugh had suffered internal injuries and a skull fracture. He added there were indications that the tractor overturned on him, but made a complete somersault and landed on its wheels.

Newest Hollywood Romance: Natalie Wood-Bob Wagner

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Hollywood's No. 1 romance of the moment concerns the 1957 version of flaming youth, Natalie Wood and young Robert Wagner.

It's enough to make a fan magazine editor coo with delight. Here is Natalie, who is to the present generation what Joan Crawford and Lana Turner were to previous onces. Add Bob, longtime darling of the younger set, and you've got an ideal setup for reams of copy.

Whe Natalie had to go to the Adirondacks for locations of "Marjorie Morningstar," Bob was there. He came home with her on the train arrived here at 9 a.m. visited her on the set at 1 a.m. He is present on the set every day.

Love?

Natalie coyly declines comment. She does admit that she and Bob are going steady, but says they have made no plans for the future. As she learned with Elvis Presley, it is difficult to carry on a romance in public.

"There never was anything between Elvis and me," she said. "How could there be? We never had enough time alone.

"My biggest mistake was going to visit him at his home in Memphis. I didn't realize people would make such a circus out of it. I'm not saying I wouldn't do it again. I probably would. But I wouldn't let anyone know about it."

Instead of riding Presley's motorcycle, she is now sailing on Wagner's yacht.

"Whenever I get time off, we go out on his motor cruiser," she said. "I'm getting pretty good as a crew member, too. We go out for a spin in the ocean and try fishing, but the only thing we've ever caught is a couple of mackerel."

She said they first met when both were under contract to 20th Century-Fox. But they didn't exactly have romance in mind then. She was a child actress of 9. He was a teen-aged actor.

Thunder Birds Grow Common At Alpena Air Guard Base

ALPENA Mich. (AP) — Thunder birds may become as famous at Alpena as its Thunder Bay.

The birds are jet airplanes, of course. Each summer they flock to this Lake Huron community on Thunder Bay from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, as well as Michigan.

Phelps Collins Air Base is a field two miles square located seven miles west of Alpena and it pours an estimated half million dollars into the area's economy each summer.

It is one of nine such Air National Guard training bases in the United States.

Improvements, including permanent buildings and drives and 160 pieces of rolling equipment, represent a National Guard investment of around six million dollars since air training was shifted to Alpena from Grayling in October, 1953.

Air National Guard units from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio come here each summer for two weeks of training—that gives a total of 10 weeks of intense activity. Then between winter's snows many come back for weekend missions over the Phelps Collins range in Lake Huron.

The airport serves Alpena civilian fliers and airliners, as well as the Air National Guard. An estimated 72,000 military takeoffs and landings are made annually at Phelps Collins, and between June and September this year there were 2,435 civilian takeoffs and landings.

The field's main north - south runway is paved 8,000 feet and has an additional 1,000 feet unpaved but usable, at either end. Its two diagonal runways are 5,000 feet long.

The airport's base is the best natural one to be found—sand. It has taken giant C124 Globemasters and flying boxcars. The field has its own intra-base telephone system, and can store a million gallons of fuel.

There are 62 concrete block barracks capable of sleeping 40 men each and a 2,000-man mess, plus machine shops, oxygen manufacturing machines, photo laboratories and enough miscellaneous equipment to support an entire Air National Guard wing of 2,000 men at one time.

The government has a 55-year lease on Phelps Collins and its continuing investments indicate it is here to stay.

Phelps Collins, which became an airfield with a thousand feet of runway in 1930 and was a fighter base in World War II, is named for a native Alpena airman who was killed in aerial combat in World War I.

As an Air National Guard base since 1953, it has had only three fliers killed in a total of nine accidents.

New York's Racial Bill Facing Stiff Opposition

NEW YORK (AP)—A bill forbidding discrimination in city housing appears stalled, at least until after a city election Nov. 5.

There was growing evidence that City Council members considered it politically too hot to handle at this time. Some conceded privately they were reluctant to vote on so controversial a measure now because their mail was running at least three to one against it.

Civilian Schools Shunned by Navy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has released a study, kept secret for almost two years, recommending that the Navy assign its primary pilot training program to civilian flying schools, as the Air Force has done.

With the document the Navy issued a lengthy analysis contradicting the survey and declaring that "civilianizing a part of its flight training is not in the best interest of the Navy."

The report, prepared by the firm of Robert Heller and Associates of Cleveland, Ohio, said the Navy could save $6,924,000 a year by using contract schools.

Ohio Valley's Future To Be Aired at Parley

CINCINNATI (AP)—The future development of the Ohio Valley will be discussed here Oct. 3 and 4 by industrial executives and military and political leaders at the 62nd annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Assn.

Navigation and waterway improvement will be discussed at the meeting on Oct. 3 by Brig. Gen. John L. Person, assistant chief of the U. S. Army Corps of engineers. At the banquet that night, Dewey Short, assistant Secretary of the Army, will speak on redevelopment of the Ohio River.

Muleskinner Fined

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — A city court judge here Wednesday sentenced 61-year-old William Jones to 30 days in jail, suspended, plus a $1 0 fine and court costs for operating a mule and wagon on a Raleigh road while intoxicated.

Armed Forces Hostess Assn. Is Big Help to GI Families

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Armed Forces Hostess Assn., friend in need to thousands of service families the world over, tries to answer queries on a multitude of subjects.

"We try to help anyone wanting any information any place where military personnel are stationed," explains Mrs. John A. Peters, wife of an Army lieutenant colonel and president of the association of volunteer officers' wives which has its headquarters and information clearing house at the Pentagon.

The store of information on housing, transportation, schools, recreation, baby-sitters and other subjects is obtained from the president of officers' wives' clubs on posts around the globe.

"They know what women want," observes Lylas Peters, "the many varied problems that plague the poor service wife who must pack up and move her family when her husband is transferred from post to post every three or four years. When they get stuck, we're the ones to help."

Mrs. Peters says that as of January, 1957, there were some 2,913,144 dependents of armed forces personnel stationed within the continental limits of the United States and abroad.

When writing for information, either to the Pentagon offices of the association or to a local post, a self-addressed, stamped envelope must be enclosed and certain details must be supplied the hostesses. First, a correspondent must give her husband's service rank. Second, if there are children ages and type of school they wish to enroll them in, public, private or parochial. Third, exactly where her husband is stationed.

Formed in Washington in 1949 by a small group of women under the direction of Mrs. F. P. Campbell, wife of an Army colonel, the organization of volunteer answer-ladies and problem - solvers has boomed to 1,000 clubs.

Some 60 of these are operating in this area alone. In the Pentagon, a staff of 40 volunteers rotates in manning the office, each serving at least two full days each month. One of the main functions of the association is to extend a personal welcome to newly - appointed officers and their families in the community and to supply assistance to all service personnel in their new surroundings.

On entering this area the service wife is contacted by one of the neighborhood hostesses who tries to help her and her family become a part of, rather than an addition, to the community.

500 Weekly Seek TV Loot

NEW YORK (AP) -- Pat Greene has one of the easiest—yet toughest—tasks on television.

Every week she reads 500 or more letters, and picks the couples who later find themselves suddenly saying "I do" before the cameras of "Bride and Groom," one of the air's sturdiest staples, which is now celebrating its 10th year via NBC-TV each weekday afternoon.

The program recently launched its 2,400th couple on the sea of matrimony with the usual jackpot of household chattels worth about $2,500.

"That seems to be a main reason for wanting to get married on the air," says Mrs. Greene. "couples feel it is a wonderful start in life free of the installment plan.

"Another reason they give that they have relatives scattered all over and they can attend through television."

She scrupulously avoids any hint of off-beat romance and enforces such requirements as that neither partner ever has been divorced. The program proudly proclaims that a survey showed marriages made on television have only one-tenth the average divorce rate.

One of the surprises of Mrs. Greene's work is the consistency with which one household item is asked by the brides.

"More than anything else they ask for sewing machines," Pat reports. "I don't know where the career girl has gone."

Rose Ave. PTA Set for New Year

Probation Officer Tells of Work Here

The Rose Avenue School Parent-Teacher Assn. laid the foundation for the program it will carry out during the coming school year at its meeting in the school Tuesday night.

The highlight of the meeting, however, was a talk by Richard McMullen, probation officer of the county's Probate Court. He told the parents — and a good many children who were at the meeting with them — about his work here and its objectives.

Mrs. Richard Whiteside, president, conducted the business meeting at which the new secretary, Mrs. Charles Dewitt, made her report and Mrs. Kennth Blair, treasurer, reported there is nearly $100 in the treasury.

Hugh Rea, principal and sixth grade teacher, introduced the teachers, only one of whom, Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, is new to the school this year. On the staff, first grade through sixth, are Mrs. Price Neff, Mrs. Harry Townsend, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Clark Pensyl, Mrs. Ruth Rider, Mrs. Mary Gillespie and Prin. Rea. There are two fourth grade rooms.

MRS. WHITED announced the following committees and committee chairmen who will serve for the remainder of the year:

Program— Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. Clifford Puckett and Mrs. Gillespie;

Membership—Prin. Rea;

Ways and Means — Mrs. Joseph E. Horney, Mrs. Omar Schwart, Mrs. Mac Dews Jr. and Mrs. Rider.

Flowers and cards — Mrs. Charles DeWitt;

Public relations — Mrs. Thurman Coulter;

Room mothers — Mrs. Richard Kellar.

The room mothers chairman announced that they have planned two parties for the children during the year, one at Thanksgiving and the other at Easter. The PTA agreed to furnish the ice cream for them.

The ways and means committee outlined a plan for selling candy to raise money, but the details were not settled.

The program of the Fayette County Council for Retarded Children was discussed at length and was endorsed by the PTA.

The attendance banner was awarded to Mrs. Gillespie's fourth grade room.

ROOM MOTHERS for the coming year are:

First grade—Mrs. Joseph Horney, Mrs. Omar Schwart and Mrs. Howard Stevens.

Second grade—Mrs. Donald Pollard, Mrs. William Holdren and Mrs. Raymond Sword.

Third grade — Mrs. Eugene Williams, Mrs. William Burns and Mrs. Joseph Forrest.

Fourth grade — Mrs. Chester Puckett, Mrs. Virgil Palmer and Mrs. Victor Saltz.

Refreshments were served by the officers.

Judge Uses Pen Owned By Bum Check Passer

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pietro Pugliano and his 18-year-old wife were arraigned for passing about $3,000 worth of bad checks.

As magistrate E. N. Johnson was about to sign a legal form, his pen went dry. Pugliano handed his pen to the magistrate.

"Here judge, try this, it made a lot of money for me," he said.

Johnson did just that and held Pugliano and his wife for court.

Hearing Friday On Charges Against Tavern

Two charges of serving beer to minors filed against the Ranch House Restaurant, 350 W. Elm St., will be heard before Judge Max G. Dice in Municipal Court Friday.

The hearing was postponed from Tuesday at the restaurant's request.

The charges accuse Janet Paul 19, member of the family that operates the restaurant, of serving 3.2 per cent beer to a 16-year-old boy and a 17-year-old boy the night of Sept. 11.

Both boys were found guilty of intoxication by Judge R. L. Brubaker in Probate Court here a few days after their arrest. Deputy Sheriff Donald Thompson filed the charge against the restaurant on the heels of their convictions.

The 16-year-old, already on probation for a previous conviction on the same charge, was "continued on probation indefinitely," and the 17-year-old was put on probation for six months, Probation Officer Richard J. McMullen said.

Calvary Baptists Will Show Movie

The motion picture, "Oiltown U. S. A.," filmed during Evangelist Billy Graham's Crusade in Houston, Tex., will be shown in Good Hope Saturday night under the auspices of Calvary Baptist Church.

It features the young evangelist and his team in their meetings in Rice Stadium, where attendance was as high as 60,000 for a single night.

The movie, in color, lasts 80 minutes. Featured are Redd Harper and Cindy Walker, stars of "Mr. Texas." a previous Graham picture.

The Calvary Baptist Church, which was organized in Washington C. H. only about a year ago, has been holding services in Good Hope for the last four months. Before that, they were held in the Wilson School on Route 70.

Doors to the church building in Good Hope will be opened Saturday at 6:30 p. m. The movie slated to start about half an hour later.

Sophomore Y-teens Elect Officers

Ann Waters was elected vice-president of the Sophomore Y-Teen club at the first meeting of the new year at Washington C. H. High School Tuesday.

Other newly-elected officers are Sharon Smith, secretary; Edith Bach, treasurer; and Barbara Byron, news reporter.

The president, Mary Jane Limes, and the program chairman, Ann McDonald, were elected at the last meeting of the freshmen Y-Teens last year.

The three city Y-Teen clubs will sponsor a float in the community chest parade Oct. 14, it was announced.

Next meeting was set for Oct. 16.

U. S. Inflation Picture Shows Opposing Sides

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The two sides in the inflation lineup show clearly today in figures released as the autumn season gets under way.

One side is the rising cost of living which pinches everyone. The other side is rising farm income, increasing dollar return for many manufacturers of nondurable goods, for many services, for many workers.

In the contest on the inflation playing field today's lineups include: The heftier factory pay check vs. the bigger family bills; higher farm prices vs. higher farm costs; rising housing and home maintenance costs vs. rising operating costs of builders and utilities; declining industrial material prices vs. rising prices of end products; still rising consumer spending vs. the levelling off of business spending for capital goods and for inventories.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that for the 12th straight month the cost of living has risen. It's at a record high, in case you hadn't noticed. But the BLS at the same time reports a longer factory work week added 33 cents in August to the weekly after tax pay check of factory workers, on average, putting earnings 3 per cent above a year ago. Consumer prices, however, are 3.6 per cent above last year. Under the rules of inflation, you rarely win.

Housing costs, including gas rates, higher interest on mortgages, rose — but so did the operating costs of builders and utilities.

While the prices at the grocery were climbing to a record level 117.9 per cent above the 1947-49 average, the Agriculture Department reports that farm income is rising, too.

This time last year it was running at an annual rate just above 12 billion dollars. The department believes it is now about 500 million dollars higher than that. Climbing prices for many products of the farms and ranches, coupled with near-record output, is doing the trick.

The department says that farm costs are also above those of last year. The farmer, however, like the factory worker, has at least a temporary gain in that income outstripped costs in the most recent sprint.

The cross play of inflation always brings up losers (notably those living on pensions or other fixed income) and at least temporary winners.

So far the consumers haven't taken to the sidelines. The Department of Commerce calls the still rising volume of consumer spending as the most important plus factor in the economy now, when so many other factors are either shaky or dubious.

Retail spending in August was a record 17¾ billion dollars, compared with 16 billion the year before.

Burglary Suspect Escapes from Jail

OBERLIN (AP)—A Cleveland man held here in connection with a clothing store burglary escaped from the city jail Wednesday night. He was identified by police as Lester Earl White, 29. The lock was gone from the door of White's cell, but it has not been determined how it was removed.

Attorney Is Sued For $8.3 Million

COLUMBUS (AP) — The largest amount ever asked in a Franklin County Common Pleas Court damage suit has been filed on behalf of DeVille Photography, Inc., against Columbus attorney Robert Dow Hamilton.

The DeVille suit, which asks $8,393,000, claims Hamilton "attempted to injure the firm's business."

Monday DeVille filed a $5 million libel suit against the Columbus Citizen, its editor and a reporter, accusing the newspaper of "false and libelous statements intended to damage and destroy the studio's reputation and business."

Ohio PTA Total Up

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio membership in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers has increased 6 per cent from 657,829 in 1955-56 to 698,530 for 1956-57, the organization reports.

Now They Are Selling 'Smog' in Packages

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ever since the land boom days that preceded citrus and film production, Southern Californians have had a reputation for capitalizing on anything.

So now come two San Fernando Valley men to package smog, in cans and other containers, as a souvenir "of the nation's third largest city."

Carleton Young and Noel T. Young of Van Nuys filed articles of incorporation here.

Jeff Tigers Win Baseball Crown

Jeffersonville's Tigers today hold the Fayette County high school baseball championship.

The Tigers, coached by Robert Hildreth, took the title Wednesday evening when they edged Bloomingburg's Bulldogs, 4 to 1, on the Bloomingburg lot to finish the four-team double-elimination tournament without a defeat.

It was the second time, the Tigers had conquered the Bulldogs in the tourney; the first time the Tigers won, 14 to 7.

Although the Bulldogs outhit the Tigers, 6-5, in the final, they could not bunch their hits effectively.

The deciding factor probably was the fast and clean fielding by the Tigers who did not make a single bobble during the game. The Bulldogs hit the ball hard, but Tiger fielders always managed to be in the right place at the right time.

THE BULLDOGS got their only run in the sixth, the only frame in which they got more than one hit.

The Tigers scored in the first on two walks and a hit and added 2 runs in the third on 2 hits, 2 bases on balls and an error. The last run came in the final inning on a freak play when the runner came all the way home from second when the Bulldog catcher could not find the ball—which was right under his feet all the time.

Only extra base hits were doubles by Tiger J. Smith and Bulldog J. Hidy.

Evans and Snyder struck out 4 and walked 6 Tigers while Cook, pitching for Jeffersonville, fanned 6 and walked 5.

The Tigers had some consolation at the end of the season, however: Only one member of the squad of 15, Kenny Anderson, is a senior.

Both Coach Hildreth and Coach Everett Rudolph of the Bulldogs said after the tournament that "interest in baseball is definitely increasing in the county schools." They credited this largely to the Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball program that is carried on in the summer now.

Braves Sport Tough Infield

Inner Circle Tagged As Heavy Hit Crew

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Adcock, Red Schoendienst, Johnny Logan and Eddie Mathews represent the hardest hitting infield in the major leagues.

Only first baseman Adcock, among these four, is rated less than a superior fielder. And he likely will be replaced by Frank Torre, a defensive standout, when the occasion demands.

For these reasons, the Milwaukee Braves' infield rates a decided edge over the New York Yankees in the World Series which opens next Wednesday.

The Yankees' infield picture is far from clear. The big question is whether first baseman Bill Skowron, a .304 righthanded batter with good power, will be able to play.

Manager Casey Stengel would like to have Skowron in the lineup, but he has been sidelined since Sept. 13 with a sacroiliac condition.

Should Skowron be unavailable Stengel's infield for the opener probably will shape up this way: first base—Harry Simpson; second base—Bobby Richardson or Gerry Coleman; shortstop — Gil McDougald; third base — Andy Carey. Carey likely will be replaced by Jerry Lumpe against Milwaukee righthanded pitchers Lew Burdette and Bob Buhl.

The home run figures of the infielders are most revealing. The Milwaukee regulars have accounted for 69.

For the Yanks the infielders have hit 37.

Only at shortstop, where McDougald gets the nod over Logan, do the Yankee infielders compare favorably with Milwaukee's. Gil is batting .290 to Logan's .277 and the New York star is just a bit better defensively.

Let's look at the other infield positions:

Second base: Schoendienst over Richardson or Coleman. With a batting average of .311, the redhead probably will be the only major leaguer to reach the 200-hit mark this season. Richardson and Coleman are much weaker batters.

First base: Adcock over Skowron or Simpson. The Milwaukee slugger hits a longer ball than either of the Yanks. He's in better shape than Skowron and superior all-around to Simpson.

Third base: Mathews over Carey or Lumpe. Eddie, in addition to his hefty hitting, is an underrated fielder.

Tony Kubek, the Yankees' brilliant rookie, should seen infield action in the late innings. He probably will be Stengel's starter in left field, where he's played most often in recent weeks.

Redleg Bonus Hurler Fails To Curb Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Jay Hook, the Cincinnati Redleg 20-year-old $65,000 bonus hurler from Northwestern University, must wait another day, perhaps another season, to record his first major league victory.

The Chicago Cubs saw to that Wednesday night when, in closing out Crosley Field for the year with a 7-5 victory, they knocked Hook from the box two-thirds of the way through the third inning. Five of six runs had scored.

Claude Osteen, just 18 and himself a minor-bonus acquisition, succeeded Hook, and promptly wild-pitched home the sixth tally, walked a man but ended matters by striking out Ernie Banks, the 12th man to come to the plate. The Cubs broke the scoring ice in the second.

Osteen allowed one hit during two and one-third innings, then gave way to Dave Skaugstad, 17-year-old high school star from Compton, Calif. Skaugstad, making his first appearance under big league fire, allowed three hits the rest of the distance.

Typical, perhaps of the "extremes of youth," the three Cincinnati youngsters walked 10 and struck out 8. Skaugstad added a second wild pitch to the record.

Moe Drabowsky, the Cubs' own 22-year-old bonus baby, racked up his 12th win of the year, even though Don Elston had to save the game for him in the ninth.

Booster Club Program for Year Outlined

More than 40 members, turned out for the Booster Club meeting Wednesday evening at the Gardner Park Field House.

Treasurer Gaines Crabtree told the members how their money was being spent. He reported that the club is providing milk for both the Lions and visiting players after each home game.

This year the club has repaired a movie projector, bought film editing equipment for the coaching staff and is spending "a lot of money" on the pony football program, Crabtree said.

Some discussion was on how to raise more money for the club's activities, but no definite plans were made. Presiding officer Vice President Howard Miller, appointed a finance committee composed of Charles Hire, Paul Pennington and William McArthur.

Coach Fred Domenico talked with the members of tentative plans which have been made for sending the Lions to Cleveland to see the Cleveland Browns in action. "The team will have to have a successful season," Domenico said, "before we make definite plans for such a weekend trip."

Domenico showed movies of last week's Xenia game and discussed the coaching staff's plans for the Little Miami game coming up here Friday night.

A membership drive is now underway. The club will meet every Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the field house, when some member of the coaching staff will show movies of the last Lions game and discuss the play.

Bucks Cautioned Against Rough Play

COLUMBUS (AP)— Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes is doing everything he can to have a full roster of able-bodied men on hand for the Buckeyes' football opener against Texas Christian University here Saturday.

He gave the team specific orders at practice Wednesday to avoid roughing it up. The result was a light-duty session and today's session, the OSU coach said, will be even lighter.

Almost all of Wednesday's practice emphasized defense. The Lions May Branch Out From Straight Football Friday...If Field Is Dry

Given a break by the Weatherman, the Lions of WHS may branch out a bit from the straight football they have had to stick to because of the mud in their first two games when they meet the boys from Little Miami High School at Morrow here Friday night.

This will be the second home game for the Lions and the weather forecast is for fair and warm.

Coach Fred Domenico said the Lions could not be expected to put on a razzle - dazzle because of their inexperience, but he indicated they probably would try some variations from the basic T offense and probably would toss more passes.

Friday night's game will bring together two teams that have not yet tasted victory this season, but since they play in different leagues there is little on which to base comparisons.

THE LIONS will run into their first single wing offense when they tangle with the Little Miamians, and they have been working on a defense to stop it much of this week.

Wednesday evening's drill was concentrated largely on this defense. With the reserves running an offense from the single wing used by Little Miami, the first and second string WHS lines took turns at stopping them. And, Domenico was all smiles when it was over.

He said "we had two players for each position. . .that gives us more depth."

Tuesday, emphasis was on the offense with Chuck Hire, John Campbell and Buddy Lynch handling the ball at the quarterback spot. Timing was better and the coordination between the backs and the line is showing improvement, Domenico said.

Dick Welsh, who was out last week with a bad ankle, is back at center. This, in the eyes of the coaches, will help because he has experience in getting the ball back to Doug Rider, Jim Myers and Bob Scott, who had been filling in for Welsh, now have more time to polish up their play.

WITH KENNY EVANS likely to be sidelined most on Friday night's game because of an ouchy leg, Rainy Foster and Jerry Sheppard have been holding down his halfback post in this week's workouts.

Roger McLean, backed up by Bill Herman, will handle the other halfback chores.

Tim Kellough, who has been behind Gary Stoddard at fullback, has been shifted into the line to replace Hank Anders, who has been moved to fullback.

Domenico said the nearly a dozen boys who have come out for football in the last two weeks "are coming along fine. . .their spirit is good". . .we've all glad to see them out." He added, significantly, that "some of them may even see some action Friday night."

THE WHS BAND, after being rained out of its show at the first two games, will have the halftime all to itself Friday night; Little Miami has no school band.

Robert Neumann, WHS band director, said the show that was to have been given first at Linden-McKinley and then here last week for the Xenia game, will be put on between the halves of Friday night's game. Very few changes have been made in the original show, he said, although there will be more time to put it on.

The majorettes will be introduced again before the game because last week the rain caused so much confusion that few heard the introductions.

Ugly Mug Is Beauty In Lebanon Payoff

LEBANON (AP)—Ugly Mug, a 5-year-old brown gelding, was a beautiful horse to those who had him Wednesday night when, in running his own fastest mile, he won the eighth race to pay his backers $62.40, one of the season's top prices at Lebanon Raceway.

Ugly Mug went the mile in 2:08-4-5, with Bob Brown of Troy at the reins. He is owned by Jack L. Smith of Waynesfield.

Denver Taking Lead In Little World Series

DENVER (AP)—Denver's explosive American Assn. playoff champions, at home in mile high air, are firmly in the driver's seat entering the third game of the best-of-seven Junior World Series.

They thumped Buffalo of the International League Wednesday night, 9-1, to go two games up in the title series. They won Tuesday night's series opener, 16-5.

2 Crack Ohio Pacers Await $40,000 Test

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—Steamin' Demon, owned by George W. Van Camp Stable in Circleville, Ohio, and Flaming Arrow, owned by William G. Vallery of Waverly, Ohio, are among 10 horses entered in the $40,000 Transamerica Pace final at Roosevelt Raceway Friday night.

Bucks continued to work out defense against plays that Texas Christian is likely to use.

Series Mound Starters Flunk In Warmups

Both Lose Wednesday In Contests Near End Of Regular Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Right-hander Bob Buhl and southpaw Whitey Ford, both spotted for starting jobs in next week's World Series, hardly looked the part in closing warm ups for the championship playoff.

Buhl, who had won nine in a row, was rapped for six hits and four runs in the eighth as the St. Louis Cardinals nailed second place with a 4-1 victory over the National League champion Milwaukee Braves Wednesday.

Ford, picked to open the series Wednesday for the New York Yankees, was tagged for four singles and two runs in the nightcap ninth as the American League champs split a twi-night pair with Baltimore, winning 5-1, then losing 4-2.

While Ford and Buhl were finding things tough, however, Stan (The Man) Musial and Ted Williams zeroed in on the major league batting crowns. Musial, whose pinch single scored the tying run for the Cards, gained two points for a .351 average. Willie Mays of the New York Giants, Musial's closest challenger in his bid for a seventh title, was idle and stayed at .333.

Williams was 2-for-3 in Boston's 7-6, 11-inning victory at Washington, and picked up two points for a .386 average. Yankee Mickey Mantle, next at .365, didn't play, resting his china legs for the series.

In the other NL game, scheduled, Chicago's Cubs junked Cincinnati's hopes for a share of third with a 7-5 victory over the Redlegs.

In the AL, it was Detroit 5, Chicago 0, with Billy Hoeft blanking the White Sox on five hits; and Cleveland 9, Kansas City 7, with the two clubs cracking 10 home runs, one shy of the major league record.

Buhl walked three, struck out two and had a two-hit shutout for seven. Eddie Kasko's two-run single was the clincher in the eighth as Lindy McDaniel, with Lloyd Merritt's two-inning relief mopup, won his 15th.

McDaniel, cracking Milwaukee's winning streak at eight games, gave up five of the Braves' seven hits, and cut Hank Aaron's RBI string at eight games although Hammerin' Henry pushed his hit streak to 10 with 2-for-4.

Billy Gardner's bases-loaded single broke it up for the Orioles. Ford walked six and gave up eight hits, four by rookie Brooks Robinson, while going the distance.

Rookie Billy O'Dell beat the Yankees for the first time, gaining a 4-10 record with a six-hitter. Billy Loes relieved in the ninth and nailed it on a double play to pinch hitter Yogi Berra — whose two-run 24th homer triggered the first-game victory over Connie Johnson (14-11). Don Larsen won his 10th.

The Red Sox had homers from Frank Malzone, who smacked a pair, Jim Piersall and Jackie Jensen. Malzone's second broke it up in the 11th.

Hoeft, who won 20 a year ago, gained a 9-11 record with his first shutout since July 29, 1956, while the Tigers handed rookie Jim Derrington a loss in his first decision.

The Tribe hammered six home runs, with Vic Wertz tagging a pair of two-run shots in the eighth and ninth that nailed it for Hoyt Wilhelm.

The Cubs bounced Jay Hook, a $65,000 bonus kid making his first start for Cincinnati, in a six-run third. Rookie Moe Drabowsky won his 12th.

Place-kicking Specialist Is Lost to Lions

Max Milstead, Washington C. H. High School junior and crack place-kicker, who has been out since the first of the season with a leg injury "won't play ball at all this year."

Milstead's right leg—his kicking leg—was put in a cast Tuesday and it will stay there for "at least a month." Coach Fred Domenico said.

Domenico said doctors ordered the cast after the leg failed to respond to earlier treatment.

Milstead has been under treatment ever since the first of the season for "what appears to be a ruptured muscle," Domenico said.

The coach said the injury probably developed "when Milstead started kicking the ball to much, too soon."

It was hoped earlier that Milstead would be available about mid-season. Jack Anders, crack Lion lineman, has been summoned for kicking duties in his stead and "probably will continue to handle them," Domenico sid.

Browns To Find Little Change in Giant '11'

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns, sprinkled with rookies, will find that the New York Giants team they meet in the season opener here Sunday is virtually the same team that won the National Football League crown last year.

The Browns, who beat the Giants 24-7 in one game last year while losing 21-9 in the other, are five-point underdogs for Sunday.

Population of Federal Capital Canberra of Australia is 35,000.

City Council Action

bordering the school grounds with little regard for traffic.

Jaycees propose (1) to place posters in school corridors urging students to "Walk on the Green" at intersections and (2) to paint intersections to carry out the "Walk on the Green" theme.

Jaycees offered to furnish both the paint and the labor although the city administration agreed to help with both materials and manpower.

The program was presented to Council by Jaycee President Bill Williams who said that a similar campaign had netted good results in other cities.

The city manager suggested that it be coupled with a school-sponsored campaign aimed at promoting safety practices among pupils riding bicycles to school.

COUNCIL instructed Parkinson to make a survey of sewer rates charged for automatic garbage disposal units in other cities after Frank Boylan appeared before the legislative body objecting to the $8-per-year special disposal charge in the new sewer rate ordinance.

The old ordinance contained no special charge for such units.

Boylan agreed that automatic disposal users should be subject to an extra charge, but he pointed out that he felt the $8 figure was discriminatory against the approximately 600 owners of such units in the city.

Council members explained that the disposal units create additional solids and sludge which must go through the sewage treatment plant, but they made in clear that they were willing to review any facets of the new rate ordinance, effective Jan. 1, which might appear unfair.

Councilman were quick to admit that they do not regard the new ordinance as perfect and pointed out that there might be inequities in an ordinance approved speedily in order to qualify the city for a $159,000 government grant toward plant expansion program.

THE CITY MANAGER explained that the research leading to the new rate schedules was done by his office in cooperation with the city's consulting engineers and the sewage treatment plant superintendent. He said that the $8 annual charge was the lowest rate suggested and amounts to less than half of an average annual charge by a garbage collector.

Parkinson said that many cities charge a percentage of the water bill as a rental fee for disposal units but that, since Wasington C. H. does not have a municipal plant, an attempt was made to set up a fair charge on the basis of the added volume of sewage created by automatic units. Restaurant units are charged at a special rate dependent on volume.

AT THE REQUEST of the Ohio Methodist Pension Board, Council agreed to change the name of that section of Newberry St., running west from Main St., to Gardner Court. This dead-end street leads into Gardner Village—a 12-acre tract on Circle Ave. left by Miss Edith Gardner to the Methodist Church. More than a dozen two-unit cottages will be erected for retired ministers.

In another resolution Council transferred $1,000 from the city's general fund to the street construction fund since income from the gasoline tax is running below earlier estimates.

The city manager reported on the progress of work at the Court-Clinton-Highland-Leesburg intersection which is being channelized for better traffic control. Although a major part of the work including installation of traffic lights, has been completed, a number of details remained to be ironed out.

CITY SOLICITOR William Junk, acting on Council's request for legal advice on two matters, reported that while bridge construction and maintenance within the city is the responsibility of county commissioners when the bridges carry state or county highways, a court decision has held that bridges not a part of state or county highways are the responsibility of the city.

At the same time the city solicitor advised that while abutting property owners have the responsibility for keeping Paint Creek clear of weeds and obstructions which interfere with the flow of water, only the city's ordinance covering "noxious weeds" is applicable to growth along the banks.

It was suggested by councilmen that chemical week-killer, applied from a boat, would be the best answer to the rank growth along the stream.

Among the observers at Wednesday night's meeting were four members of the Business and Professional Women's Club which is currently stressing problems of government as part of its educational program.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

30 Idaho School Boys End Strike

TWIN FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Thirty high school boys have ended their three-day strike against school officials in a dispute over absenteeism.

Negotiations for three days resulted in the students agreeing to return to their tasks and school authorities agreeing that the three days of freedom would count only as one day of absence.

The dispute flared when school officials said there would be no more official excuses for deer and elk hunting trips.

Strontium Waste Disposal Studied

STILLWATER, Okla (AP) — A University of Texas expert on Radiological waste disposal said it will take a lake the size of the state and 15 feet deep to safely dilute all the strontium 90 which will be produced by 1990. Dr. Earnest F. Golyna, professor of sanitary engineering, described strontium as "one of the bad actors" among radioactive wastes and said the supply would be about 15 tons in 33 years.

City School Board Position On Sale of Bonds Explained

In a ecent account of a Washington C. H. Board of Education meeting, it was stated in the Record-Herald in connection with the board's plan to issue a note for $46,230, that the rest of a $645,000 bond issue voted last November is being held up on the advice of the board's attorneys because of "litigation involving the Fayette County Citizens Committee."

Actually the Citizens Committee is NOT in litigation. In other words not a party to any law suit. However, the law firm of Bricker, Marburger, Evatt and Barton, Columbus, employed as counsel by the city board, has based its advice on the very existence of a citizens committee.

IN A LETTER to the board last December, while a suit seeking establishment of a citizens committee was still pending, the law firm said in part:

"It appears that since the functions of such citizens committee involve the organization and reorganization of the school districts within your county, that the question of the boundaries of your school district is being contested as well as perhaps title of the present officers of the respective school districts within your county, which could possibly include your district."

"Under the foregoing circumstances, it is our judgment that the required signature and non-litigation certificate necessary to be furnished at the time of delivery of these bonds.... may not be executed."

The letter instructed the board to reject bids on the bonds which had been called for on Dec. 13 and defer sale until "this litigation (the Citizens Committee suit) is disposed of."

The letter further says that "this situation might be further clarified were your district dismissed as one of the parties defendant in the above noted action. Upon examination of the pertinent statutes, however, it appears that there is some question as to the propriety of such dismissal since the functions of the citizens committee sought by the plaintiff would appear to involve all, rather than part, of the school districts within a county."

ON FEB. 8 after a settlement had been reached in the taxpayers' suit and the way cleared for establishment of a citizens committee, the law firm told the city board by letter:

"If this decision is not taken to the Court of Appeals and reversed, it appears that a citizens committee is to be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3311.31, Revised Code. Under these circumstances, the bonds should not be sold until after the work of the citizens committee is completed for the reasons set forth in our letter to you of Dec. 5, 1956."

W. A. Smith, city superintendent of schools, told the Record-Herald this week that the law firm still insists that the bonds should not be offered, even though, Smith declared, "repeated efforts have been made by the board to clear the way for sale."

Awaiting final decision in the Ohio Supreme Court is an action brought by the Miami Trace Board of Education seeking to clarify the entire school bond situation and asking the court to order sale of the Miami Trace district building bonds.

While the city board, entering the Miami Trace suit as a friend of the court, took a stand in opposition to Miami Trace, it nevertheless stated that if the high court should conclude that the Miami Trace district should sell its bonds, the city board is interested that the writ be issued on the basis of general principles "so expressed as to settle questions. . .which might apply to other districts."

* * *

"THE WASHINGTON C. H. board is impatiently waiting an opportunity to sell its bonds and proceed with construction of badly needed buildings", Smith said. "But the board is not going to take action against the advice of its attorneys."

Smith indicated, however, that if the Supreme Court orders the Miami Trace district to sell its bonds, the city board assumes that it would be free to proceed with its own program immediately.

Smith pointed out that the city's architect is drawing working plans and specifications for proposed new Belle Aire and East Side elementary buildings as well as additions to Rose Avenue and Cherry Hill schools in order that no time will be lost when the bonding attorneys say that the city can proceed legally with the sale of its bonds.

Blessed Events

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Groves of 228 Water St., are the parents of an 8 pound, 5 ounce son, born in Memorial Hospital at 1:23 a. m. Thursday.

Trucker Injured At Stone Quarry

A Sabina youth was injured while at work at the Sugar Creek Stone Quarry, Route 70 south, early Wednesday afternoon, when a truck which he was driving rolled off a 10-foot-high stone stock pile.

In satisfactory condition at Memorial Hospital is John Derth, 18, who suffered abrasions on his left side and undetermined neck injuries.

An official of the quarry said Derth had driven his truck onto the pile to dump stone and "must have gone too close to the edge."

Damage to the vehicle was slight. It landed on its top.

Child in Hospital Following Collision

A Mt. Sterling man and his two small children were injured — one of them seriously — when the car in which they were riding was hit by another vehicle at Main and London Sts. there late Wednesday morning.

In Fayette Memorial Hospital as a result of the mishap is John Wesley Mason, 2½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Newton of Route 2, Mt. Sterling. He is being treated for major cuts and bruises.

His sister, Terry, 5, was treated for face cuts, and his father was treated for a cut in his forehead.

All three were passengers in a car driven by Howard Rollins, 27, of Route 2, Mt. Sterling, which was hit by a vehicle driven by Orris Neff, 77, of Route 2, Orient.

Mt. Sterling Police Chief Lee Rowe said Neff was charged with running a red light. Original court appearance before Mayor Mac A. Chenowith was scheduled for Thursday, but the case was postponed until Friday.

Sale of Fairground

As was the case with the first sale offer, the lowest acceptable bid must be two-thirds of the appraised value.

IT IS GENERALLY believed that Judge Kirk will order the parcels to be offered for sale separately at the impending sale. Normally, the Fairground property proper would be offered for sale first, the parcel of land lying on the CCC highway second, and the area behind the Anderson Restaurant last.

Also, the opening bid for each parcel must be two-thirds of the appraised value. Thus, the lowest acceptable bid on the Fairground proper tract (39.774 acres) would be $44,300. The 5.674 acre tract facing on the CCC highway would have to bring $9,824 and the third plot, .952 acres, could be bought for $1,552.

Since the commissioner's lease specifies that all buildings on the property prior to Dec. 31, 1950, shall remain on the property at the termination of the lease, the appraisers evaluation of the 39.-.77 acre portion included those buildings. The commissioner's lease also specifies that any building erected on the property after Jan. 1, 1951, shall be removed from the property within four months of the lease termination.

Only authorative estimate of the value of the buildings is from an inventory made in 1949, but listing building values as of 1941. That inventory lists building values at $34,820.

Maddux Restaurant Sold

Mrs. Walter Marshall, 1007 Clinton Ave., has purchased the Maddux Restaurant, 118 N. Fayette St., from Mrs. Arthur Maddux, and will go into business there Oct. 1, it was disclosed Thursday.

Name of the restaurant will be changed to the Mar-Hi, after Mrs. Marshall and her father, C. F. Highley, 1007 Clinton Ave., who will be an inactive partner. Present policies will remain unchanged.

Mrs. Maddux, who lives at 628 High St., is planning to retire. She has operated the restaurant for nearly 18 months since the death of her husband, who was in business there for nearly 25 years.

Mrs. Marshall has been employed in various restaurants in this years, but this is her first venture in business for herself.

Her husband is a sergeant on the city police force.

Firemen Called Twice, But Arrive After Fires Out

Firemen were called out once Wednesday night and again Thursday morning— and got there too late each time.

A small fire at the home of Joseph Oyer, 527 Harrison St., did damage to insulation in a clothes dryer in the basement. Fire Chief George Hall said the blaze apparently started from flames in a nearby gas heater. Firemen answered the alarm at 9:20 p. m.

Brake lining was burned out of a truck operated by Harold Streitenberger, Prairie Rd. about 8 a. m. when the vehicle caught fire while in motion on the Prairie Rd. near the Route 70 junction.

Lieut. Maynard Denen said that Streitenberger "apparently left his emergency brake on."

School Takes Bids On Fuel Oil Needs

The Sinclair Oil and Refining Co. was low bidder on fuel oil for the new boilers being installed at Washington High School.

Superintendent W. A. Smith said that eight oil companies were invited to bid on supplying 10,000 gallons of No. 2 fuel oil for the heating system which probably will be in operation next week. The Sinclair bid was 12.3 cents per gallon plus one per cent discount in 10 days.

The new boilers, which replace 50-year-old equipment used to heat high school, junior high and Central elementary areas, use a combination of oil and gas. The oil cuts in when the temperature dips to 20 degrees.

The new span, 150 feet in length, will replace the old bridge that collapsed on April 14 of this year after an abutment on the south side had been weakened by flood waters.

Man in House Hit by Plane Rescued by Former WCH Man

Ralph Hudson, a resident of Washington C. H. until two years ago, is credited with having saved the life of Herbert VanZant of Dayton, when an Air Force B-26 crashed into the VanZant home in attempting to return to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base last Tuesday.

Hudson, a civilian employee of the Air Force, sold his home at 414 Van Deman St. in June, 1955. Prior to that, the Hudson family lived at 1017 Center St. While in Washington C. H., Hudson was an engineer-mechanic at Wright-Patterson and commuted to his work every day.

Hudson's home in Dayton is just away from the three homes on Tuttle Ave. into which the Wright-Patterson based plane crashed. Hudson is reported to have been at the scene within 20 seconds after the crash.

Hudson looked into the crashed plane and, not seeing any bodies in the wreckage, entered the VanZant home through an open window. He called to find if anyone was in the wreckage and got no response. However, on his way from the house he said he saw a part of the outside wall move and realized that someone was pushing the siding.

With the help of two other men, who had come to aid in any rescue, Hudson broke a window pane and pulled the dazed VanZant to safety.

"The whole thing couldn't have taken over two minutes," Hudson is quoted as saying.

Killed in the crash was Mrs. Mildred VanZant and her brother, Walter Geisler, Mrs. VanZant was in the home at the time of the crash, and the brother was in the back yard cutting grass.

Nine out of every ten of the Ottoman Turkish emperors were poets.
